Owner / Director at Coded Projects

about me

Who I am

ICT consultant since 2000, I am lucky enough to earn a living doing what I most passionate about. Computer, technology, and electronic devices are drugs from which I am extremely addicted since the age of 7 years thanks to the fantastic Commodore 64 and its great BASIC language.

What I'm looking for

I am looking for business partners and companies that wants to externalize the software development, utilizing an high quality software development company with a strong customer focused strategy and affordable pricing.

My current position

I am now Owner/Director of Coded Projects (<http://www.codedprojects.com>), a company based in Warsaw (Poland) which offers remote development services to EU companies especially on italian and polish markets. I'm working hard to get grow up this business.
